By Jerry Pollatta

DISCUSS

Talk through your thoughts.

- As you began to read the book, what did you think the animals might be doing?
- Names some manners that you are working on at home and at school.

CREATE

Make an experience of your own.

- Set up a tea party for your family or friends. Talk to them about how to use their manners while they eat.
- Draw a picture of your favorite animal. Add words around the animal to describe what noises it might be making.

IMAGINE

Use your imagination to explore.

- If the animals were using bad manners while they were eating, what sounds would they be making? Slurping, bubbling, chomping?
- Why do people burp? Have your parents help you to answer this question by researching online or checking out books at the library.
